The above referenced case is before this court upon the magistrate judge's recommendation that plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis be denied.

This court is charged with conducting a de novo review of any portion of the magistrate judge's report to which a specific objection is registered, and may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendations contained in that report. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). However, absent prompt objection by a dissatisfied party, it appears that Congress did not intend for the district court to review the factual and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge. Thomas v Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985). Additionally, any party who fails to file timely, written objections to the magistrate judge's report pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) waives the right to raise those objections at the appellate court level. United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91 (4th Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 467 U.S. 1208 (1984 ).<sup>1</sup> No objections

<sup>1</sup>In Wright v. Collins, 766 F.2d 841 (4th Cir. 1985), the court held "that a pro se litigant must receive fair notification of the consequences of failure to object to a magistrate judge's report before such a procedural default will result in waiver of the right to appeal. The notice must be 'sufficiently understandable to one in appellant's circumstances fairly to appraise him have been filed to the magistrate judge's report and recommendation.

A de novo review of the record indicates that the magistrate judge's report accurately summarizes this case and the applicable law. Accordingly, the magistrate judge's report and recommendation is AFFIRMED, and plaintiff's Motion for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis is DENIED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff has twenty-one (21) days from the date of this order to pay the full $350.00 filing fee, in which event this matter will be returned to the Magistrate Judge assigned to conduct a review of plaintiff's complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A. However, if plaintiff fails to pay the full $350 filing fee within twenty-one (21) days from the date of this order, or seek an extension of time to do so, then the court will issue a final order dismissing the complaint without prejudice and without issuance and service of process.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
